

VICTORIA LABALME

Introduction

(Labalme pronounced “Lah – Bomb”)

Before I begin, I’d like to ask everyone to please take a moment to turn off your cell phones and blackberries. Please double check, even if you think yours is off. Great. Thank you.

Now, I’d like to introduce our presenter, Victoria Labalme.

Believe me, Victoria is not your typical speaker. She’s worked as a director, producer and performer.

Some of you may have seen her

- on News programs
- in theaters and comedy festivals across North America
- in a cameo on HBO’s Sex & the City
- or in one of the 27 television commercials she’s done ... including a spot for the Super Bowl.

Victoria helps her clients dramatically transform their business communications by aligning their unique talents with their personal and professional mission, to communicate, connect and come alive.

She's been a consultant to senior executives and teams at Starbucks, Microsoft, McDonald's, Enterprise Rent-a-Car, IBM, Pacific Life Insurance, and US government agencies.

A graduate of Stanford University, she is the author of the innovative Mini Book series including The Prism Effect & Engage Your Brilliance

Victoria also trained with the legendary French mime, Marcel Marceau ("Mar-sell Mar-so") who naturally prepared her for a career in the speaking industry.

We're _____ to have her here with us today.

Please join me in giving a very warm welcome to Victoria

Labalme.
